Garden Expert Boehr Goes To Hastings

The following is from yesterday's Hastings Republican:

"John W. Boehr, Hastings public schools new agricultural instructor, arrived Tuesday morning to begin his duties. He is the first who has been employed here to direct gardening during vacation.

"Approximately 300 children will raise gardens here this summer and will have him for consultation and advice. Some are in the school plots north-west of the ball park but the most are at the own homes. Boehr is a square-built and good natured young man who "made good" first at Fairfield and then Red Cloud."
